

Pew Center on the States
“1 in 31: The Long Reach of American Corrections”

Errata

The following errors were found subsequent to the release of the state fact sheets corresponding to the report “1 in 31: The Long Reach of American Corrections.” They have been corrected in the online versions.

The following revisions should be noted in the “1 in 31” state fact sheets. Accurate figures are in bold. Originally published numbers appear in brackets.

State Fact Sheets

AL: “$26.05 [$26.06]”

AR: “Corrections Costs” graph -- Year: 1983 [1984]

CA: “35 [27] percent... rank: 26 [14]” and “was 28 [12] percent... rank: 27 [15]”... “Corrections Cost” graph – Years: 1999 [1998], 2007 [2006]

DC: “42 [27] percent... rank: 12 [14]” and “was 37 [12] percent... rank: 14 [15]”

DE: “19 [26] cents on probation,” “22 [16] days of probation,” “$1.94 [$10.48] - $26.80 [$36.81]” and “$0.96 [$1.74] - $4.26 [$5.76]”... “Corrections Costs” graph – Years: 1983 [1993], 2001 [2003]

ME: “$5.06 [$5.02]”

MI: “278,805 [278,808]”

MO: “18 [13] days of probation and parole” and “$2.47 [$3.39]”

NV: “17 [18] cents on probation”

OK: “$518.05 [$518.04]”

PA: “54 [4] days of probation”

WY: “$91.51 [$91.59]”